

Stacey Felice

Director of Accounting

Stacey serves as the Director of Accounting for the Aurora Regional Economic Alliance (Alliance). Stacey Felice joins the Alliance with more than 18 years of accounting and business management experience, including 8 years specializing in nonprofit accounting and leadership. She has lived in Aurora for the past 17 years with her husband, Chris, where they have built strong ties to the local community.

Stacey has a driven work ethic and is passionate about developing strong associations focused on membership engagement and long-term dedication. She is committed to providing outstanding service, supporting events, and fostering meaningful professional relationships.

Outside of her professional role, Stacey fosters small animals through Fur Angels Animal Sanctuary and enjoys cheering on her son, Brayden, in wrestling and supporting her daughter, Hailey, in horseback riding.
